

Welcome to the City of Rochester's Youth Voice, One Vision Executive Board Application

Our Vision: Youth Voice, One Vision. The Mayor's Youth Advisory Council, is dedicated to connecting, training and advising Rochester's youth leaders, city governance, adult advisors and community stakeholders. The goal is to establish a diverse membership of youth who can provide expertise in various fields and inform and impact policies related to youth issues.

Our Mission:

Communication, determination, respect, and teamwork: That is YVOV!

- Youth Voice, One Vision is a group of young community members who represent the voice and issues of the youth in Rochester as the Mayor's Youth Advisory Council.
- We are working together to create opportunities, events, and activities that inspire change, and unite our community in a positive way!

Our Objectives are to:

- Conduct on-going community outreach and assessments to identify youth priorities.
- Advise the Mayor, Chief of Police, Rochester Police Department command staff and other City officials on a regular basis on issues/opportunities of importance to Rochester youth (e.g. youth safety, and police-youth relations)
- Provide youth an opportunity to explore various career opportunities within the Police Department.
- Carry out youth led projects and initiatives to impact community change.

Annual Events:

- Steppin' Up To Solutions (SUTS) Youth Conference: YVOV R-center Executive Board and other youth leadership groups attend various workshops and present on their Service Learning Project.
- End of the Year Trip
- Laser Tron(end of 2nd Quarter)
