

2007 ANNUAL REPORT

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK
POLICE DEPARTMENT

DAVID T. MOORE, CHIEF OF POLICE

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

A MESSAGE FROM CHIEF MOORE

On behalf of the 889 dedicated men and women of the Rochester Police Department, I am pleased to present our Annual Report for 2007. This report has been prepared to provide an overview of Department activity over the past year. What this report will not be able to articulate is all of the hard work that was done each day and night. I would like to thank Mayor, Robert J. Duffy, City Council, and the community for the support and cooperation provided to the Police Department throughout the year.

During 2007, the Rochester community experienced several peaks in violence. In order to address these peaks the “Zero Tolerance” initiative was begun in October of 2007 and was intended to create an atmosphere of omnipresence by the Rochester Police Department. We realized that we needed to change the mindset of those individuals who believe that it is okay to commit crime. We did this by increasing the number of police officers assigned to patrol functions, increasing the visibility of our officers, and proactive aggressive police work, enforcing all laws and ordinances. We have seen tremendous results with this initiative and at years end we realized a 17.5% reduction in violent crime over the previous year.

The Police Department continued its good fortune in realizing results from teamwork. Anti-violence initiatives such as Operation IMPACT and Operation Rolling Thunder illustrated this team effort. A Department goal for 2006 was to reduce Part I crime by 5%. Due to individual hard work, vibrant initiatives and inter and intra-departmental cooperation, this goal was achieved and we realized a 10.5% reduction from the previous fiscal year. Additional improvements were made to the Department with the development of the Automated Field Reporting System, which allows officer to enter crime data real time into the records management system.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

Accreditation ensures that law enforcement agencies provide progressive, customer-focused services and meet the highest professional standards.

The Rochester Police Department received national recognition upon accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) in 1987 and the New York State Bureau of Municipal Police in 1990.

Under both programs, these accrediting agencies rigorously review Department practices for compliance with recognized and accepted law enforcement standards.

Accreditation is granted for three years by CALEA and for five years by New York State. During these periods, the agency must comply with all applicable standards. A report is submitted annually to each accrediting body, attesting to continued compliance. At the end of each accreditation period, the agency undergoes a thorough on-site assessment to verify compliance for its re-accreditation.

As a leading law enforcement agency, members of the Rochester Police Department are proud of the high quality of service for which they have been recognized, and continue to pursue excellence in law enforcement.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

ADMINISTRATION BUREAU

The Firearms Training Unit is responsible for all aspects of firearms training, repair, deployment and training and evaluation for the Department. The unit is also a resource for all other police departments in the county and surrounding regions, including state, federal and military agencies.

The unit maintains an inventory of all Department weapons and ammunition, including specialized weapons, gas launchers, bean bag guns and related support equipment. Staff members conduct all repairs on weapons except for the most complex.

All firearms related training is conducted in the 16 position indoor range or the 21 position outdoor range. The indoor range targets have the capability of turning 180 degrees with a maximum distance of 25 yards.

Recruitment Unit

The human resources of any organization are usually its key ingredient for success. Employees provide the services, operate the technology, and manage resources and other employees. Employees are also the most unpredictable resources and often incur the greatest costs. These circumstances make the recruitment and selection of the right employee a matter of fundamental importance.

Recruitment is particularly important for the Rochester Police Department. In order to function properly, police services need to maintain high levels of trust and cooperation with other governmental agencies and with the citizens of Rochester. The selection of the right people as police officers is essential if public confidence in the integrity and effectiveness of the police services are to be established and maintained.

The RPD's recruiting website averaged 45 hits per day, and the Unit sent over 2,000 e-mail responses and 750 U.S. mail responses (including brochures) to inquiries received. The Unit answered questions regarding the Department and employment with RPD to an average of 150 people per month via telephone and in-person visits.

The Media Productions Unit supplements the Department's training programs with the use of video presentations and is responsible for the inventory and maintenance of all audio/video equipment utilized by members of the Department.

The Media Coordinator is responsible for maintaining the Video Library System, a system that catalogs all of the Department's video programs as well as those available through the Municipal Police Training Council. This system affords all personnel access to the various video programs. The Coordinator also maintains the video training distribution record keeping system for all issued video programs. This system documents the individual viewing of all video production programs.

The Media Coordinator assists the E-learning trainer by placing requested lesson plans into digital format for on-line distribution via the Department's intranet. The Coordinator also serves as the Department's representative and network administrator for the county-wide Emergency Training and Information Network (E.T.I.N.).

Animal Services

[184 Verona Street, Rochester, NY 14608]

Animal Services is responsible for impounding unleashed and menacing dogs, stray animals, unwanted and abandoned pets, and animals that have injured a person. The Unit enforces all local and state animal control ordinances including: Leash law, barking ordinance, number of dogs allowed per household, rabies quarantines, dangerous dog law, and dog licensing. Animal Control Officers (ACOs) respond to animal related calls for service dispatched from the 911 center. ACOs also assist Police Officers in the execution of warrants to ensure officer and public safety when animals are involved. The Unit operates a shelter for temporarily housing impounded animals. The shelter serves as both an adoption center and as a lost and found facility. Animal Care Technicians maintain the shelter and the animals and assist citizens in finding missing or new pets. The shelter includes an on-sitespay/neuter clinic. The Unit has an active volunteer program that is essential to the maintenance of care for the animals.

STATISTICS

2007 PART I OFFENSES

Part I and Part II Offenses are defined in accordance with the Uniform Crime Reporting Program, a cooperative statistical effort of more than 17,000 city, county, and state law enforcement agencies. Administered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation since 1930, the Program's primary purpose is to generate reliable statistics for use in law enforcement administration and operation. The data, which has become one of the leading social indicators of our nation, is reported by the Rochester Police Department to the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services, and is forwarded to the FBI.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

STATISTICS

CALLS FOR SERVICE

The Rochester Police Department tracks all services to the community by “calls for service”, “police responses”, and “self-initiated activities”. “Calls for service” are 911 calls dispatched by the Emergency Communications Department (ECD). A “police response” occurs each time an additional unit provides service at a given scene. As one call for service may result in multiple units in response, the number of responses is likely to be greater than the number of calls for service. “Self-initiated activity” is an event the officer comes across on the beat or initiates. In 2007, the number of calls for service increased 1.7% by 7,136 calls, and the number of responses by units increased 1.3% by 8,914 responses.

ECD assigns each specific incident a Crime Report number. The “CR” number is a unique number assigned to each event by which all reports, tickets, arrests, etc. can be traced. In the event that there is a need to refer back to a given incident, searches can be conducted by entry of the CR number, as well as the date or location of the incident. These retrievals are performed in the RPD Police Activity Tracking System (PATS), an in-house computer application that maintains data on all RPD activity and responses transferred from ECD to the RPD Informations Systems Unit.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2007

DEPARTMENT INFORMATION:

VIOLENCE ENFORCEMENT AND SUPPRESSION TEAM (VEST)

The Rochester Police Department created a new initiative that would target Rochester's most violent criminal offenders who have committed Robbery, Rape, Serious Assaults, Weapons Possession, or Murder. A strong message is communicated to these offenders that they are being watched closely. Intervention services are offered to help them avoid further criminal activity. The Rochester Police Department, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Agency, United States Attorney's Office, New York State Police, New York State Parole, and the Monroe County District Attorney's office are represented in this effort. They will work closely with Monroe County Probation, Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms, United States Marshall's, and the Monroe county Sheriff's Office to continue a relentless attack on violent crime in the Rochester community.

PARTNERSHIP WITH INTERFAITH ACTION

The RPD expanded our relationship with Interfaith Action and its member congregations to implement a comprehensive plan to address crime. This program presents an opportunity for uniform officers and our faith-based community to interact with our citizens together. This initiative involves foot patrol beats in challenged neighborhoods on both the east and west sides of the City.

SHOTSPOTTER SYSTEM

Shotspotter is a gunshot location system designed to trace the sound of gunshots in an urban environment using microphones or remote sensors that can detect the sound of a gunshot and transmit them through telephone lines to a central computer system. The computer analyzes the acoustical data for gunshots and provides a precise location for police to respond. This program was activated in the City of Rochester and has allowed officers to have a quicker response to weapon related incidents, resulting in multiple arrests and preventing further violence.

CURFEW

A curfew program was developed for protecting the children in our community. Minors who were out after the curfew restriction were either taken home, to the care of another responsible adult, or transported to a designated facility for intervention. This program sent the message to minors to be safely home during these hours and to their parents to know where their children were.

TRUANCY PROGRAM

The RPD, in conjunction with the Rochester City School District (RCSD) and the Department of Recreation and Youth Services, has developed a comprehensive working agreement to curb truancy in the Rochester community. RPD has two Police Officers assigned specifically to truancy enforcement. The Officers are hand selected by their Division Commanders and work cooperatively with the RCSD employees at the Truancy Center located at Hart Street to provide structure and guidance to truant students. The program, which began in September of 2007, has proved successful with hundreds of student contacts, leading to improved student attendance and working toward the goal of educating the children in the Rochester community.

DEPARTMENT INFORMATION:

GUN DROP PROGRAM

The RPD, along with the Clergy Response Team and Wegmans Food Markets, sponsored five “No Questions Asked” Gun Drop off programs. Guns were dropped off at six different churches within the City of Rochester. A total of 222 guns were taken in during the 2007 Gun Drop Program.

EMOTIONAL DISTURBED PERSON RESPONSE TEAM (EDPRT)

EDPRT is specifically trained group of employees that respond to assist emotionally disturbed individuals in situations including suicidal persons, persons exhibiting irrational behavior, handling psychiatric patients, the homeless, and other various mental concerns.

COMMUNITY NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT TEAM (C-NET)

C-NET is a collaborative effort between the Rochester Police Department and the New York State Police. The details employ the use of under cover officers provided by the NYS Police to address open-air drug markets within the City of Rochester.

GREATER ROCHESTER AREA NARCOTICS ENFORCEMENT TEAM

In May 2000, the Rochester Police Department’s Special Investigations Section’s Administrative Narcotics Unit and the Monroe County Narcotics Unit (MRNU) were merged to form the Metro Rochester Narcotics Unit (MRNU). In May 2000, MRNU merged with the Multi-Agency Drug Tasks

Force, consisting of Police Agencies from Irondequoit, East Rochester, Fairport, Webster, Brighton, and the National Guard. This Unit is now called the Greater Rochester Area Narcotics Enforcement Team (GRANET). GRANET's Advisory Board consists of one town Police Chief, the RPD SIS Captain and the MCSO CID Captain. The mission of GRANET is to achieve maximum coordination and cooperation and bring to bear the combination resources of member agencies to primarily investigate mid-level and upper-level narcotics offenses in the greater Rochester area. This team is currently commanded by a RPD lieutenant and consists of members from Town and Village agencies, along with the Monroe County Sheriff's Office.

PROJECT EXILE

Project Exile is a program run by the Firearms Suppression Unit in conjunction with the US Attorney's Office and Monroe County Crime Lab. The program concentrates on reviewing all weapons arrests in the Rochester area to determine whether the defendants would be prosecuted in federal court or state court. The decision depends upon which prosecution will result in a greater term of incarceration. When prosecuted federally the defendant is "exiled" from the community by mandatory incarceration in a facility far removed from their home. Project Exile is not solely an enforcement tool and has evolved into a community partnership with Partners Against Violence Everywhere (PAVE), a victims' anti-violence group. The group works in community education to make the wider community aware of Project Exile.

OPERATION NIGHTWATCH

Operation Nightwatch is a collaborative effort between the City of Rochester Police Department and the County of Monroe, Office of Probation and Community Corrections. The effort pairs RPD police officers with county probation officers and together they check for court ordered compliance for probationers that reside in the City. Over the past several years the City of Rochester has funded one Monroe County Probation Officer position in Operation Nightwatch through the use of grant funds earmarked for the city. The special emphasis of this program is on youth that are on probation and have an established curfew. Violators can be arrested at the scene of their violations.

PROJECT CEASEFIRE

Project Ceasefire was first developed as part of the Boston Gun Project in 1995-96. Its goal was to reduce gang related firearms violence and homicide with a coordinated law enforcement attack on specific offenders, coupled with an attempt to generate a strong deterrent to gang violence. Locally, ceasefire was tried prior to SACSI and then reintroduced as a strategy developed during the SACSI process. More recently as part of the Project Safe Neighborhood, the department has continued this program and this effort is currently in progress.

FIREARMS SUPPRESSION/VIOLENT CRIME TEAM

The Firearms Suppression Unit (FSU) continues to be a part of the Greater Rochester Special Operations Group. FSU is partnered with the New York State Police, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms (BATF) and the Bureau of Immigrations & Customs Enforcement. One mission is the tracing program, which traces the history of all firearms coming into the possession of RPD. This aids in the identification and investigation of persons trafficking firearms into the Rochester. Area. FSU also conducts training for local law enforcement officers on federal/state gun laws, trafficking and carrier recognition. In addition, the Violent Crime Team works to target and investigate those known (violent) offenders with an extended history of criminal activity. Cases are frequently conspiracy cases and it's not uncommon that the charges are lodged for long-ago offenses that had not yet been prosecuted.

IMPACT

IMPACT is a collaborative effort amongst the City of Rochester Police Department, the County of Monroe Child Protective Unit, the Monroe County Sheriffs Office and the Monroe County District Attorney's Office. This City/ County team was established in 1996 and acts as a central point of contact to allow victims maximum availability to follow-up services. Three investigators are assigned by the RPD to work with child Protective caseworkers to jointly interview child abuse victims. This joint interview decreases the trauma to the victim by reducing the number of interviews they have to give and it also permits a more consistent recount of the incident by the victims. The team utilizes the Bivona Child Advocacy Center, 275 Lake Avenue. The Center also provides medical exams and counseling services. Approximately 275 victims of child abuse are helped annual by this joint effort.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The “Do the Right Thing” Program began in Rochester in 1996 and was adopted from a similar program in the Miami Police Department. The program’s goals are to reinforce socially desirable behavior, to demonstrate that “good kids” are newsworthy, and to foster positive relations between young people and police officers.
