ARTICLE 5
MERIT TESTING FOR INVESTIGATOR

Section 1: Testing Procedure

Assignment of members within the rank of Police Officer to the departmentally designated position of Investigator will be based on merit testing. The testing procedures are to be conducted by the Rochester Police Department under the direction of the Chief of Police and will consist of written examinations, oral interviews, and after consultation with the Union, such other testing procedures as determined by the Chief of Police, to create a rank standing. Assignment to the functions of Investigator will be made by the Chief of Police, in such numbers as he shall deem appropriate and necessary, by the selection of one of the three persons standing highest on the list of those persons who qualify for assignment as a result of such merit testing. The list of those eligible for assignment shall remain in effect for a maximum of three (3) years unless extended by mutual consent.

Section 2: Preference for Experience

If, after the merit testing procedure has been completed, two or more members receive equal rank standing, preference shall be given to the member with the longest seniority as a designated Plainclothesman or Detective at the time of creation of the rank standing. In the event that the preference set forth in this Section is applicable, the member entitled to such preference shall be deemed to have a higher rank standing than any other member having an otherwise equal rank standing. Except as provided in this Section, whenever two or more members receive equal rank standing, such members shall collectively constitute one "person" for purposes of assignment as provided in Section 1 of this Article.

Section 3: Compensation

Members assigned as Investigators in accordance with this Article shall be paid at Bracket 90, Step A. Upon the completion of one (1) full year of assignment as an Investigator, the member shall be paid at Bracket 90, Step B. Section 4: Duration of Assignment

The Chief of Police shall have the sole power to assign Police Officers to duty as Investigators, as provided in this Article, and to reassign members from the duty of Investigators to other duties within the rank of Police Officer. Upon written request by the member reassigned, the member shall be entitled to an articulated explanation for such reassignment. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement, a reassignment of an Investigator to other duties within the rank of Police Officer shall not be deemed to be a transfer. Notwithstanding Section 75 of the Civil Service Law, any other statute, this Agreement, or any Rule or Regulation of the Rochester Police Department or the City of Rochester, a reassignment of a member from duty as an Investigator to other duties within the rank of Police Officer shall not be deemed as discipline or a demotion. Any member reassigned from duty as an Investigator to other duties within the rank of Police Officer shall be compensated at the salary provided in Bracket 90, up to Step 4, applicable to a Police Officer with the member's length of service within that title.

Section 5: Temporary Assignments

Said temporary assignment may not exceed thirty (30) calendar days except as provided in Section 5(C) of this Article.
2. Selection, by the Chief of Police, of members assigned to perform the duties of an Investigator shall be made from those members who qualify for the assignment as a result of the merit testing system as set forth in Section 1 of this Article, as follows:
 - a. by selecting one of the persons on the current Investigator list who is assigned to the Section in which temporary assignment is to be made, or;
 - b. by selecting one of three persons standing highest on the entire Investigator list.
- B. If it becomes necessary for the Chief of Police to make a temporary assignment to the duties of an Investigator not to exceed ten (10) working days, he may do so at his discretion by selecting a member working within the Section and Platoon where the temporary assignment is to be worked, whether or not the member is on the list of those persons who qualify as a result of the merit testing procedures set forth in Section 1 of this Article.

C. If it becomes necessary for the Chief of Police to extend a temporary assignment which was made pursuant to subdivisions A or B of this Section, the said extension may be made if:

1. The extension is vital to the continuity of a particular investigation, and;
2. Removal of a particular member from the temporary assignment would greatly hinder a particular investigation, and;
3. Permission is granted by the Union. Said permission shall not be unreasonably denied.

This provision will not apply to necessary first aid or emergency services rendered in cases of injury in line of duty. Eligibility for the benefits described above shall initially be determined solely by the Chief of Police. The decisions of the Chief of Police shall be subject to the provisions of Article 27.

Section 4: Discontinued Tours

When a member discontinues his tour of duty due to injury or illness, he will be on sick leave and will be subject to all the regulations of this Sick Leave Article and applicable General Orders. Whenever a Unit member is being investigated by the Professional Standards Section (PSS) or by any other Section performing similar functions, the following shall apply:

1. The interview of any member of the bargaining unit shall be at a reasonable hour, preferably when the member officer is on duty, and during the daylight hours, unless the exigency of the investigation dictates otherwise.
2. The interview shall be conducted at a location designated by the investigating officer, preferably at Police Headquarters.
3. The member of the bargaining unit shall be informed of the rank, name and command of the officer in charge of the investigation as well as the name and rank of the officer conducting the interview, and the identity of all persons present during the interview.

4. A member of the bargaining unit shall have made available to him at his request all reports which he has submitted regarding said investigation.
5. The member of the bargaining unit shall be informed of the nature of the investigation before any interview commences. Sufficient information to reasonably apprise the member of the allegations made against him shall be provided prior to any interview.
6. A member of the bargaining unit shall have the right to have present, as a representative, at the member's own interview an attorney of his choice, or a representative designated by the Club, except that the member may not be represented by any other unit member who is identified as a target or witness of the investigation at the time the member is interviewed by members of the Professional Standards Section, or may waive such right to representation. The designation of a particular representative shall not unduly delay the process. This representation shall extend to allowing the attorney or the representative to pose questions to the member of the bargaining unit at the conclusion of the questioning being done by the Police Department, or if the member is unrepresented, he shall have the right to make a statement. The attorney or Club representative shall not interfere with or impede the investigation. It is further agreed that the City of Rochester and the Rochester Police Department will attempt to resolve disciplinary actions only with the attorney selected by the member of the bargaining unit, or a representative of the Club where the member has elected such representation. It is the express intent of the parties to restrict representation of the members of the bargaining unit to representatives of the Club in those instances when the member of such bargaining unit is not represented by counsel or is not representing himself.
7. A member of the bargaining unit subject to such investigation by the Police Department shall have the right upon request to a copy of any statement he shall make to the Police Department, free of charge, within 30 days of its production, provided such statement is reduced to writing and may have a copy released directly to an authorized Union representative upon signed release of the member.
8. The City of Rochester agrees that it will not interrogate bargaining unit members in Professional Standards Section interviews regarding conversations between the members and their Union representatives which occur as a result of the Union's statutory duty to represent its members.

10. A member of the bargaining unit subject to such investigation by the Police Department shall not be subject to any offensive language nor, except as otherwise provided herein, shall he be threatened with transfer, dismissal, or any other disciplinary punishment. No promise or reward shall be made as an inducement to answering questions. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as to prohibit the Police Department from instructing the member that his failure or refusal to answer any questions

- can become the subject of disciplinary action itself, resulting in disciplinary punishment.
11. In no event shall a member of the bargaining unit be ordered or requested to submit to a lie detector or polygraph test.
 12. Prior to the filing of departmental charges, the bargaining unit member shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard.
 13. Any member of the bargaining unit shall be given a copy of any warning or memorandum entered in his personnel file. If in the opinion of said member, the warning or memorandum issued was not justified, then the member shall have the right to respond in writing and have such response entered in his personnel file. Such Hearing Officer shall be a professional neutral, selected, on a rotating basis, from a panel of at least three neutrals mutually agreed to by the City and the Locust Club. In the event the parties cannot agree to a panel, the neutral shall be selected by the Appointing Authority from a list of such neutrals maintained by the American Arbitration Association regional office in Syracuse, New York. The costs and expenses of such neutral Hearing Officer shall be paid by the City, and the Hearing Officer shall conduct a hearing pursuant to Section 75 of the Civil Service Law and shall forward his/her Findings and Recommendations to the Appointing Authority for decision in accordance with the provisions of Section 75.
16. No removal or disciplinary proceeding shall be commenced more than eighteen (18) months after the occurrence of the alleged incompetence or misconduct complained of in the disciplinary charges, except that such limitations shall not apply where the incompetency or misconduct complained of and described in the charges would, if proved in a court of appropriate jurisdiction, constitute a crime.

17. The Chief shall make a written final disposition and notify the accused officer of the Hearing Officer's recommendation within thirty (30) days following receipt of the recommendations. A copy of the disposition and the Hearing Officer's recommendation will be provided to the member and the Union President.

Upon receipt of the statements, neither the Union nor its agents shall contact any person whose statement has been provided.
(B) The Union agrees to release a copy of all statements of potential witnesses that the Union anticipates calling as a witness for the defense of any accused member. The statement shall be released to the Commanding Officer of the Professional Standards Section at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to a hearing date.
Upon receipt of the statement, the City agrees not to contact any person whose statement has been given to the City's representative.
21. The Union can allege violation of procedures to the Chief of Police in writing. The Chief will take such allegation into consideration as possible mitigating circumstances in selecting the disciplinary penalty, if any.
