Due to an error when the property was subdivided for the 2013-14 fiscal year, the property was put into the adjacent property owner's name, Clarissa Santiago Homeowners Association. The Clarissa Santiago HOA mistakenly paid the tax bill even though it did not own the property. An omitted tax bill for the applicable years will be sent to Cornhill Village Homeowners Association.

All the information was provided to the Bureau of Assessment and the property was split and four tax account numbers were created. However, the Condominium Declaration was never filed at the Monroe County Clerk's office which made the subdivision null and void and the property is being restored to the original account number.
